         a. Former Vice President (during Eisenhower’s administration) as well as communist-hunter 2. Democrats nominated Kennedy
         a. Lyndon B. Johnson, a Senator from Texas, was his running mate 3. A televised debate is believed to have made the difference in the election, in which Kennedy “looked” better than Nixon [a. 303 electoral votes for Kennedy, 219 for Nixon]
      4. Kennedy wins: he was the nation’s youngest president at age 43 and the first Catholic president

II. John F. Kennedy
   A. Kennedy’s Administration
      1. He asked the nations of the world to join together to fight what he called the common enemies of man: tyranny, poverty, disease, and war
         a. His policies are commonly referred to as the New Frontier (“We stand today on the edge of a New Frontier — the frontier of the 1960s, the frontier of unknown opportunities and perils, the frontier of unfilled hopes and unfilled threats…”)
            i. Minimum wage was raised from $1 to $1.25 ii. Social Security benefits were increased iii. Created the Peace Corp (March 1961) to aid developing nations iv. Supported a tax cut in an effort to stimulate the economy (1963)
      2. Kennedy and Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara pushed a policy of flexible response—they wanted to have a variety of options ready to apply to any potential situation that arose (rather the Eisenhower’s idea of massive retaliation)
         a. This did not mean adding more nuclear weapons; it included Special Forces (such as the creation of the Green Berets) that could be used—so they had multiple responses to conflict 3. Wanted to put a man on the moon ASAP (in response to the Soviet Union’s launch of Sputnik)
         a. He was the first president to ask Congress to approve money for the space program
            i. Alan Shepard was the first American in space (1961) ii. In February 1962 John Glenn became the first American to orbit the Earth

III. Kennedy: Foreign Policy
   A. Vietnam
      1. Historically, Vietnam was first controlled by the Chinese, the French, and the Japanese (1940-45)
         a. France controlled Vietnam again in the post-WWII era
            i. France struggled to maintain influence over Vietnam ii. The Geneva Conference (1954) declared a cease-fire and split Vietnam at the 17th parallel into North and South

b. Why did the U.S. get involved?
   i. Containment and the domino theory

B. Cuba: The Bay of Pigs Invasion (April 1961)
   1. Just before Eisenhower left office he broke diplomatic relations with Cuba by closing the U.S. Embassy

      b. Overall, the Bay of Pigs invasion was a disaster for which Kennedy took full responsibility

C. The Berlin Wall
   1. In June 1961 Kennedy met with Khrushchev at a conference in Austria to attempt to resolve the status over Berlin
      a. The Soviets wanted the U.S., Britain, and France to give them full control over the city
      b. This conference failed to resolve the issue

   2. The East Germans constructed the Berlin Wall (1961) with help from the Soviets

      a. In the summer of 1962, Khrushchev installed ballistic missiles in Cuba

   2. The Crisis began on October 14, when a U-2 surveillance mission flying over Cuba photographed the construction of launch sites for medium and intermediate range ballistic missiles

   3. On October 22 announced on TV that the U.S. had discovered missiles in Cuba
      a. Kennedy warned that the purpose of the Soviet missiles in Cuba could be “none other than to provide a nuclear strike capability against the Western Hemisphere” and that he would protect the United States from such a threat no matter what the cost

      b. He explained the U.S. Navy would impose a quarantine around Cuba (the term blockade became controversial and was seen as a war term, so quarantine was used)
         i. Kennedy declared that any missile launched from Cuba would warrant a full-scale retaliatory attack by the U.S. against the Soviet Union

   4. On October 24, 25 Soviet ships neared the quarantine but later turned back

   5. Tensions remained high as a U-2 surveillance plane went down in Cuba 6. Eventually communication with the Soviets was opened a. The U.S. would end its quarantine and promise not to invade Cuba in addition to removing ballistic nuclear missiles from Turkey
      i. On October 28, the Crisis was resolved when the Soviets accepted the U.S. compromise
   b. On November 20, Kennedy ended the naval quarantine of Cuba after the Soviet Union had dismantled and removed the weapons from Cuba

IV. Kennedy and Civil Rights

   a. By June 1965 75,000 U.S. troops were in Vietnam
